

When Mankind Tells God, "Get Out!

When mankind tells God, "Get out!" God's voice will be quiet.

They tell me Lord that when I pray only one voice is heard
That you are not there and I am dreaming and this thing is absurd
And he goes to build the skeptics taunt and ends it with a stern response;
He says "Maybe Lord they're right." "Maybe they're right."
Maybe there's only one voice there that's heard,
But if they are right that there is only one voice that's heard, and
Where they are wrong is there is only one voice it's not mine, but it's yours.
I am not dreaming, you are the dreamer and I am your dream

The problem with man is not the absence of evidence, it is the suppression of it. And when you take that step and say "I am now committing myself to you, the Bible says that is the step of faith of trust that God is who He claims to be.
