

TESTIMONY
THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD KNOWS NO DISTANCE
October 30, 2016

What follows is a timeline of events showing how the Spirit of God knows no distances and His timing is impeccable. Only the first names have been used.

Ephesians 4:6 says, “From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.” (KJV)

The Spirit of the Lord impressed a person to send a text to a family member whose husband was ill. What follows is a timeline of communication and the results of the work of God.

10/29/2016 8:02 PM (9:30 PM Eastern)

“Hey Lin! We have been praying for Ed, but do not know how to pray. I saw something about going to Richmond? Please let me know. Thanks, love you and God bless!”

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:01 A.M.

“As a matter of fact, we’re overnight here in Jasper, heading to Charleston. The medical facility has told us not to come until they get things scheduled. . . so we’re headed to Charleston, to sign papers on closing our house. He’s now has a fever. Without a thermometer, I’d say 102 – maybe 103. In which way, do you need to know how to pray? It’s his biliary duct that develops a blockage . . . when fever hits, they’ve set up house or colonized so the bile isn’t getting through and it’s puddled up in there creating a nest of unknown, deadly bacteria. When they go to fix it, the bacteria in there puts him into toxic shock . . . it can be fatal as the three times before. A fever signifies an infection. Now I’m left with a decision . . . to go on to Charleston or head to Richmond or go back to Little Rock. His spirit is in a state of the unknown . . . He’s been born again but it’s sort of like, “Help my unbelief.” I don’t even know how to pray. Thank you.”

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:16 A.M.

“How to pray. I was just praying, after you sent this text. When I told the Lord, “She does not know how to pray, IMMEDIATELY the Lord spoke the following: “Pray in the Spirit, the Lord will answer her prayer.” He is talking about you praying in the Spirit.”
Our prayers are interlocked with yours.

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:29 A.M.

“Thanks, Jay . . . that’s very encouraging.”

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:45 A.M

“You are most welcome! As you know, praying in the Holy Ghost is the most powerful form of prayer because it transcends and bypasses our intellect and goes to the root of the problem so effectively the enemy cannot crack the code. It drives the enemy nuts. I have gone to the Lord in prayer saying something along the following lines: “Father, I come before you in the Blood of Jesus and through the Vail of His body to pray for (state the problem or need). Please help me pray by your Holy Spirit.” Then begin praying in the Holy Ghost. Does this help?”

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 7:56 A.M

“Thank you for getting us through the night. I’m blown away by the whole experience. The fact that you would drop in – of all people - offering support to something we were immediately going through at that time of night was nothing less than awesome from an awesome God! He knows how alone I feel during those times and I didn’t know what to do. I followed your words because no one knows how to handle his medical problem at any hospital we could go to so that wasn’t an option. I prayed . . . in the dark (it was weird too cuz as I prayed my left eye went completely blind. I just shuffled that away as the enemy trying to thwart the good we were accomplishing and kept praying for Ed).

“It's morning and we are just getting up. Ed's bile duct had opened up and his drain bag was almost full. The fever is gone! I’m crying because there is no denying God’s awesomeness! It wasn’t you, it wasn’t me . . . it was strictly being obedient to God’s instruction. It should feel like an everyday occurrence, having God show Himself to His kids - it should be second nature. Some occurrences of His presence happen at my most confusing times - when I don't even know how to pray because I'm so overwhelmed. It isn’t the surgery or the state of his current medical condition that most makes me feel alone – it’s the care I need to give him when all is said and done. That’s when I get to feeling most alone. I don't say anything to anyone about how I feel because I’m not going to give a bad report ... I stay positive and near to the Lord. He’s shown me Great and marvelous lessons. Thank you for being obedient.”

LAST WORD

This is an awesome testimony! In the dark of night, the Lord answers the prayer of a couple of His children. His Word prevailed! David, the psalmist said in Psalm 50:15, “And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.” Further, what she and her husband experienced fell in direct alignment with 1 Corinthians 2:4-5, “. . . [N]ot with enticing words of man’s wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.”

She called upon the Lord for her husband. The Lord heard and answered their plea within four hours!

What a glorious testimony!

FOLLOW UP

What follows is an additional important piece of the testimony, which happened before the foregoing exchange:

“We woke early that morning (whatever time it was) because Ed had fallen out of bed trying to go to the bathroom and he was burning up. We got him to the bathroom and back to bed and AS I WAS GETTING BACK IN BED, my phone sounded as though I was getting a text. I had no idea who would contact me at that time of the morning. I see a message from you, but it was timed at 9:03 p.m. I was puzzled but sent you a response figuring you were up. No Other Person had sent me anything and your note was hours earlier. Not really understanding I started communicating with you and you answered so I figured I hadn’t looked at the time right. It wasn’t until the morning I really realized that your note was actually sent at 9:03 p.m. My phone supernaturally rang – No One had sent me text at that time of the night! It was God and you must’ve been awake? I don’t know but that just added to the awesomeness of the events . . .”

Ephesians 4:6 says, “From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.” (KJV)

The Spirit of the Lord impressed a person to send a text to a family member whose husband was ill. What follows is a timeline of communication and the results of the work of God.

10/29/2016 8:02 PM (9:30 PM Eastern)

“Hey Lin! We have been praying for Ed, but do not know how to pray. I saw something about going to Richmond? Please let me know. Thanks, love you and God bless!”

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:01 A.M.

“As a matter of fact, we’re overnight here in Jasper, heading to Charleston. The medical facility has told us not to come until they get things scheduled. . . so we’re headed to Charleston, to sign papers on closing our house. He’s now has a fever. Without a thermometer, I’d say 102 – maybe

103. In which way, do you need to know how to pray? It's his biliary duct that develops a blockage . . . when fever hits, they've set up house or colonized so the bile isn't getting through and it's puddled up in there creating a nest of unknown, deadly bacteria. When they go to fix it, the bacteria in there puts him into toxic shock . . . it can be fatal as the three times before. A fever signifies an infection. Now I'm left with a decision . . . to go on to Charleston or head to Richmond or go back to Little Rock. His spirit is in a state of the unknown . . . He's been born again but it's sort of like, "Help my unbelief." I don't even know how to pray. Thank you."

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:16 A.M.

"How to pray. I was just praying, after you sent this text. When I told the Lord, "She does not know how to pray, IMMEDIATELY the Lord spoke the following: "Pray in the Spirit, the Lord will answer her prayer." He is talking about you praying in the Spirit."

Our prayers are interlocked with yours.

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:29 A.M.

"Thanks, Jay . . . that's very encouraging."

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:45 A.M

"You are most welcome! As you know, praying in the Holy Ghost is the most powerful form of prayer because it transcends and bypasses our intellect and goes to the root of the problem so effectively the enemy cannot crack the code. It drives the enemy nuts. I have gone to the Lord in prayer saying something along the following lines: "Father, I come before you in the Blood of Jesus and through the Vail of His body to pray for (state the problem or need). Please help me pray by your Holy Spirit." Then begin praying in the Holy Ghost. Does this help?"

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 7:56 A.M

"Thank you for getting us through the night. I'm blown away by the whole experience. The fact that you would drop in – of all people - offering support to something we were immediately going through at that time of night was nothing less than awesome from an awesome God! He knows how alone I feel during those times and I didn't know what to do. I followed your words because no one knows how to handle his medical problem at any hospital we could go to so that wasn't an option. I prayed . . . in the dark (it was weird too cuz as I prayed my left eye went completely blind. I just shuffled that away as the enemy trying to thwart the good we were accomplishing and kept praying for Ed).

“It's morning and we are just getting up. Ed's bile duct had opened up and his drain bag was almost full. The fever is gone! I'm crying because there is no denying God's awesomeness! It wasn't you, it wasn't me . . . it was strictly being obedient to God's instruction. It should feel like an everyday occurrence, having God show Himself to His kids - it should be second nature. Some occurrences of His presence happen at my most confusing times - when I don't even know how to pray because I'm so overwhelmed. It isn't the surgery or the state of his current medical condition that most makes me feel alone – it's the care I need to give him when all is said and done. That's when I get to feeling most alone. I don't say anything to anyone about how I feel because I'm not going to give a bad report ... I stay positive and near to the Lord. He's shown me Great and marvelous lessons. Thank you for being obedient.”

LAST WORD

This is an awesome testimony! In the dark of night, the Lord answers the prayer of a couple of His children. His Word prevailed! David, the psalmist said in Psalm 50:15, “And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.” Further, what she and her husband experienced fell in direct alignment with 1 Corinthians 2:4-5, “. . . [N]ot with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.”

She called upon the Lord for her husband. The Lord heard and answered their plea within four hours!

What a glorious testimony!

FOLLOW UP

What follows is an additional important piece of the testimony, which happened before the foregoing exchange:

“We woke early that morning (whatever time it was) because Ed had fallen out of bed trying to go to the bathroom and he was burning up. We got him to the bathroom and back to bed and AS I WAS GETTING BACK IN BED, my phone sounded as though I was getting a text. I had no idea who would contact me at that time of the morning. I see a message from you, but it was timed at 9:03 p.m. I was puzzled but sent you a response figuring you were up. No Other Person had sent me anything and your note was hours earlier. Not really understanding I started communicating with you and you answered so I figured I hadn't looked at the time right. It wasn't until the morning I really realized that your note was actually sent at 9:03 p.m. My phone supernaturally rang – No One had sent me text at that time of the night! It was God and you must've been awake? I don't know but that just added to the awesomeness of the events . . .”

Ephesians 4:6 says, “From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.” (KJV)

The Spirit of the Lord impressed a person to send a text to a family member whose husband was ill. What follows is a timeline of communication and the results of the work of God.

10/29/2016 8:02 PM (9:30 PM Eastern)

“Hey Lin! We have been praying for Ed, but do not know how to pray. I saw something about going to Richmond? Please let me know. Thanks, love you and God bless!”

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:01 A.M.

“As a matter of fact, we’re overnight here in Jasper, heading to Charleston. The medical facility has told us not to come until they get things scheduled. . . so we’re headed to Charleston, to sign papers on closing our house. He’s now has a fever. Without a thermometer, I’d say 102 – maybe 103. In which way, do you need to know how to pray? It’s his biliary duct that develops a blockage . . .when fever hits, they’ve set up house or colonized so the bile isn’t getting through and it’s puddled up in there creating a nest of unknown, deadly bacteria. When they go to fix it, the bacteria in there puts him into toxic shock . . . it can be fatal as the three times before. A fever signifies an infection. Now I’m left with a decision . . . to go on to Charleston or head to Richmond or go back to Little Rock. His spirit is in a state of the unknown . . . He’s been born again but it’s sort of like, “Help my unbelief.” I don’t even know how to pray. Thank you.”

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:16 A.M.

“How to pray. I was just praying, after you sent this text. When I told the Lord, “She does not know how to pray, IMMEDIATELY the Lord spoke the following: “Pray in the Spirit, the Lord will answer her prayer.” He is talking about you praying in the Spirit.”
Our prayers are interlocked with yours.

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 3:29 A.M.

“Thanks, Jay . . . that’s very encouraging.”

RESPONSE:

10/30/2016 3:45 A.M

“You are most welcome! As you know, praying in the Holy Ghost is the most powerful form of prayer because it transcends and bypasses our intellect and goes to the root of the problem so effectively the enemy cannot crack the code. It drives the enemy nuts. I have gone to the Lord in prayer saying something along the following lines: “Father, I come before you in the Blood of Jesus and through the Vail of His body to pray for (state the problem or need). Please help me pray by your Holy Spirit.” Then begin praying in the Holy Ghost. Does this help?”

RESPONSE

10/30/2016 7:56 A.M

“Thank you for getting us through the night. I’m blown away by the whole experience. The fact that you would drop in – of all people - offering support to something we were immediately going through at that time of night was nothing less than awesome from an awesome God! He knows how alone I feel during those times and I didn’t know what to do. I followed your words because no one knows how to handle his medical problem at any hospital we could go to so that wasn’t an option. I prayed . . . in the dark (it was weird too cuz as I prayed my left eye went completely blind. I just shuffled that away as the enemy trying to thwart the good we were accomplishing and kept praying for Ed).

“It's morning and we are just getting up. Ed's bile duct had opened up and his drain bag was almost full. The fever is gone! I’m crying because there is no denying God’s awesomeness! It wasn’t you, it wasn’t me . . . it was strictly being obedient to God’s instruction. It should feel like an everyday occurrence, having God show Himself to His kids - it should be second nature. Some occurrences of His presence happen at my most confusing times - when I don't even know how to pray because I'm so overwhelmed. It isn’t the surgery or the state of his current medical condition that most makes me feel alone – it’s the care I need to give him when all is said and done. That’s when I get to feeling most alone. I don't say anything to anyone about how I feel because I’m not going to give a bad report ... I stay positive and near to the Lord. He’s shown me Great and marvelous lessons. Thank you for being obedient.”

LAST WORD

This is an awesome testimony! In the dark of night, the Lord answers the prayer of a couple of His children. His Word prevailed! David, the psalmist said in Psalm 50:15, “And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.” Further, what she and her husband experienced fell in direct alignment with 1 Corinthians 2:4-5, “. . . [N]ot with enticing words of man’s wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.”

She called upon the Lord for her husband. The Lord heard and answered their plea within four hours!

What a glorious testimony!

FOLLOW UP

What follows is an additional important piece of the testimony, which happened before the foregoing exchange:

“We woke early that morning (whatever time it was) because Ed had fallen out of bed trying to go to the bathroom and he was burning up. We got him to the bathroom and back to bed and AS I WAS GETTING BACK IN BED, my phone sounded as though I was getting a text. I had no idea who would contact me at that time of the morning. I see a message from you, but it was timed at 9:03 p.m. I was puzzled but sent you a response figuring you were up. No Other Person had sent me anything and your note was hours earlier. Not really understanding I started communicating with you and you answered so I figured I hadn’t looked at the time right. It wasn’t until the morning I really realized that your note was actually sent at 9:03 p.m. My phone supernaturally rang – No One had sent me text at that time of the night! It was God and you must’ve been awake? I don’t know but that just added to the awesomeness of the events . . .”