

PROPHECY

1/15/2011

The God of love and the God of life are comprised in the triune being of the One true God who sits on the throne of life.

The power of God is exerted in Life toward His children who are His crowning achievement. The Lord God of the universe's achievement is His reflection of Himself as He formed human to dwell in His presence and to have communion, constantly, with Him.

As the mountains are high and the waters deep so is the love of God. As limitless as space so is the magnitude of the One creator, God our Father, who exists from everlasting to everlasting. Great is His omnipotence and worthy is He to be praised.

The mighty valour of our God through Jesus Christ our Lord through the Holy Spirit is seen through the battles He fights on our behalf. He is victorious and never fails.

The power of God is present to heal us from all disease and calamity. Never is the Lord aswaged by the onslaught of the enemy. The Lord shows Himself magnificent in every situation of life.

The mighty are fallen at the breath of the Lord; nothing stands in His way. They are blown like thistles in a high wind, spin into thin air and are dissolved.

The Lord shall strongly avenge His children and those who call upon His mighty Name. Never shall those who call be confounded, but shall bask in the Light of His presence and live peace knowing their Father has saved them.

The defeat of the enemy is sure, complete, and they never rise again except when they call upon Him to save them. The Lord shall save all who call upon His name and shall stand them upon their feet to face the Light.

Never has the Lord forsaken me. I have called upon Him and He has saved me; lifted me out of the mire. I called upon Him and He was rich to me calling me by name.

I have seen the righteous seem to be defeated but they were not for God intervened in their life and stopped the onslaught of the enemy. He fought the battle for me and prevailed against my enemies and those whose thought was to crush me for my stand with God.

Jesus is the Name in which I trust for He is the Son of God and prayed Father to send the Holy Spirit to them who asked. The Holy Spirit is strong to defend and tells the things of God to the Lord's people.

We hear words from Jayson that Tracy has issued a line in the sand making statements that the boys, Tristin, and Koby should not have dinner with Jayson, at this time. Why? Ultimately, the truth is outed as Jayson send Tracy a note asking for an explanation. Tracy returned to him a response that Brooklynn told Tracy that Jayson had said that her Mommy was not living according to the Word of God. The line in the sand was Tracy's use of her boys to get Jayson to keep his mouth shut regarding her sinful way and ways in living with a man without benefit of marriage. The man, Tom, has moved into the house. The boys had only seen the man twice.

An item is Tracy mentioned that Brooklynn is only seven years old. Q: how old does a person have to be before they are 'ready' to learn about the Word of God and very God Himself? Apparently, Brooklynn is not too young to learn of the sin of living with a man without benefit of marriage, and such is being taught by Tracy. Tracy's actions have set forth at least two severe items; one, Jayson is to keep quiet to Brooklynn about how Tracy and Tom are living in sin. This means Tracy is in favor of not allowing her daughter to know the Word of God and to be taught accordingly; second, using her sons as shields clearly indicates her lack of love of them. Using them as weapons against him because she knows full well he loves the boys and they love him. This is a dastardly and wicked stance. A line in the sand was drawn holding her sons hostage unless Jayson capitulates and agrees to remain criminally silent. Jayson will not do this as he has emphatically told Tracy he will not cover for her.

Tracy's actions is a clear indication our prayers are having a positively clear, concise, sharp effect upon Tracy. We have been praying for God to have such an effect upon Tracy she gives up Brooklynn to keep what she does secret. Interestingly, the Word says through Jesus if the light within a person be darkness, then how great is that darkness. Tracy wants to cover herself and all she does from the Light emanating from Jayson. We shall never be quiet, but shall overcome evil with good. Tracy shall thrust Brooklynn out of her house in order to maintain secrecy. Truthfully, never is a long time and the boys shall grow to the point nothing shall keep them from Jayson.

Sooner or later, the pictures Tristin saw of his mother in Texas will come out for all to see. His seeing her with Tom with his hand in her bra while French kissing him will come out verbally from him. Tracy was taking the picture.

Historically, when children began to be used by the government to prosecute a war the end of the war was near. Allegorically, Tracy's use of her children is an act of failure and the end of her continued snubbing of God and hateful and despicable action against Jayson draws near and in fact, the wind is blowing.

Jayson can not physically do anything about the situation at Tracy's, but he can pray and prayer warriors we are as we continue to beseech the throne of God, declaring His Words in this situation.

On December 1, 2010, while in prayer with Nickee, I saw a tree with a large trunk. A very large axe was being laid at the base of the tree to chop it down. The tree is Tracy and the axe is the Word of God.

On December 1, 2010, as I prayed while driving home from work, I wept and prayed to the Lord for a good word for our son, Jayson. A word was given to me to tell him, which follows: "Cease from despairing. Cut it loose and be free." I delivered the message to Jayson.

A couple of weeks ago, as Nickee and I prayed, I saw a highway with cars. The time was night and I was at an altitude of at least 1,000 feet. There was a line of cars on fire. The meaning was immediate. Tracy is on the road to hell.
