New Ager – Look Inward

The new agers, including so-called Eastern religions, encourage people, ‘Look inward,’ which I think is interesting insofar as there is nothing in there to help them. Outside they are whitened tombs, but inwardly they are full of dead bones. They cannot add one day to their life; nor can they add one hair to their head. They look into an empty well of murky darkness. They are darkened souls who have made themselves their own god who cannot add on lumen of light to their path; therefore, the light they have is darkness, and if the light within themselves is darkness then how great is that darkness! No, there is no light in them; therefore, they stumble and fall.

There are those of them who fruitlessly spend thousands of dollars seeking physical healing from doctors, naturopaths, new agers, seers with crystals; etc., but why go do such foolishness when they can look inward to themselves for their answers? Since they have made themselves god, they should be able to heal themselves.

God is the author of all we are and there is nothing to supplant Him, nothing. The only Light is Him and the only true physician of our spirit and body. Apart from God they can do nothing. Delusion is believing something in the face of incontrovertible facts. Truthfully, I believe these people believe exists, but as a little child want to do things for themselves instead of allowing their parent to help them. There is a way which seems right to live, in the eyes of mankind, but the end thereof is death.

Want to get to the One True God? There is only one way, through Jesus. When they get to the ‘end of themselves,’ will they turn to God? Will they cry out? I trust so, and pray for those I know who ardently reject God before time is gone and they go into eternity without God, the extant God.
