God is Extant

What is on my mind? Today, I ruminated; that is, to go over in the mind repeatedly and often casually or slowly, that Creator God is extant. He has been, He is, He ever shall be. This is not some mere deity, but the One who knows the center of time and space. All things are upheld with the Word of His power and by Him all things consist. He is the One to whom I turn to express my ultimate joy when no one else is there.
