The Mirror

James 1:22-24 states, “But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For, he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.”

What may be said of this section of scripture is the following; If a person is a doer; that is, one who not only hears, but practices what the Word says, they are a person who DOES remember the manner of person they are. Why? Because they remember what they do and why, and the purpose.
