As I Prayed

As I prayed, I asked the Lord, "What is your mind?" I received the following, the next day, as the Lord directed me to a passage of scripture Jeremiah 10, which has to do with today's apostasy of the church,

"Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous; but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."
